THE CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN

After several weeks of preparation by the Presbyterians of Kentucky the actual canvass among the churches in this section for $1,000,000 for Christian education will begin. It is planned to visit every church in the State and representatives from headquarters will shortly hold a conference with the Presbyterian pastors and church officers for the appointment of local committees and other detail work. The cause will be represented in the pulpits by the local pastors and by representatives from Louisville.

Locally the people are very much interested in the movement. It is planned to apportion $200,000 to the Presbyterian Seminary, $200,000 to Centre College, $200,000 to the Kentucky College for Women, the remainder going to Sayre School, Witherspoon College, Pikeville College, Scott Academy and the Presbyterian Orphanage. The work will be finished by the end of the year.

Mr. Garrett S. Jefferson, of the Paris church, is looking after the advertising end, and a few other details, for Bourbon county.

FORMER PARIS WOMAN MISSING FROM HOME

Information was received here yesterday of the disappearance from her home, on Greenup street, in Covington, of Miss Maude Power, aged forty, a former resident of Paris. Due to continued illness her mind is believed to have become affected. Eluding the watchfulness of a nurse and relatives, she escaped through a window at her home, and was last seen going toward the river, clad only in her night dress.

Since their parents died when they were quite young, Miss Power and her sister have made their home in Covington with an aunt, Miss Maggie White. A brother, John Power, was connected with the job printing establishment of J. T. Pryor, and the family resided in a small cottage on South Main street. The Misses Power were quite prominent in Catholic circles in Covington.

LATER—A telephone message late yesterday afternoon from Covington to THE NEWS stated that after a long search by the Covington police, and relatives and friends, the body of Miss Power was found in the Ohio river, just under the Suspension Bridge, at a point near the Kentucky shore. In her delirium she had evidently wandered to the river and fallen in. The message also stated that the funeral would be held from St. Mary's Cathedral, at nine o'clock to-morrow (Wednesday) morning, and the burial would follow in St. Joseph's Cemetery, in Covington.

Cynthiana	0	1	.000

The Bluegrass League is starting its second series exactly as it finished the first, with Paris, Maysville and Lexington in the first division. Nippert, former Miami University star, now holding a place in the Mammoth's left field, just now has one of the heaviest batting averages in the League.

He has hit safely in every one of his eight games, and has an average of .433 including two hits made off Rasty Wright, in the Paris-Winchester game Sunday. His team mate, Coyle, playing second, is also coming along in the batting averages.

Paris literally went baseball "loco" Sunday afternoon, when in the first game of the new series, the Paris Mammoths took a fall out of the Winchester Dodgers by a score of 6 to 4. One of the largest crowds ever seen at the League Park was present to witness the struggle, and it was a good-natured, chaffing crowd, despite the terrific heat and other discomforts. The game was in the nature of a trial of skill between Rasty Wright, the Dodgers' premier pitcher, and Miner, for Paris. A new slab artist, Blakefield, of Memphis, Tenn., went in to pitch for Paris, but owing to previous injury, went out of the game after pitching two innings. Miner finished out the game, and did splendid work. Wright was hit at the time when hits meant something in the scoring line, while Miner held his visit ors well in hand at all times. Coyle and Ciconia featured for Paris while the Winchester shortstop, Hisle, grabbed off a home run by a long hit over the fence. Macke and Nippert grabbed two base hits, while Oliver Mann pulled out a three-bagger. The batteries were—For Paris, Blakefield, Miner and Macke; for Winchester, Wright, Thoss and Frazier. The game, which went for two hours, was umpired by Goodman, former manager of the Paris team, who was "right there" in his position.

The meeting held in Cynthiana the past week, at which time the new schedule was adopted, was a very enthusiastic one, and better harmony was displayed on the part of the club owners than ever before. All the clubs reported as being in good shape and are looking forward to a post-season series between the winner of the first and last half of the season schedule. There is also considerable talk of a Kentucky championship series between the winner of the Bluegrass League and the Kitty League.

The new schedule, which will include games on Thursdays, Saturdays and Sunday, has not yet been given out by President Russell. As to where the teams will play next the dates will probably not be announced before Wednesday.

Besides the Bluegrass League games and games between colored teams in various parts of the county, games are played every Sunday afternoon at Black's Cross Roads, seven miles from Paris. In a recent game the Cross Roads Terrors defeated the Spears Mill teams by a score of 3 to 2. The game was a duel between opposing pitchers.

Not since the days of the old Bluegrass League has such enthusiasm over baseball been witnessed in Paris as after Sunday's game between the Mammoths and the Winchester team. Young and old, men, women and children eagerly sought the bulletin boards and hardly anything else was discussed on the streets. Crowds thronged the streets after the game, and the scores of automobiles returning from the ball park filled the streets on both sides in running lines. The crowd at the ball park was undoubtedly the largest ever seen there.

It was a matter of universal comment Sunday afternoon that each of the losing teams made four runs in their contests.

The next game in the Church League will be played on Hancock Field this (Tuesday) afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, between the Methodist and Christian teams.

FAYETTE COUNTY GROWER SUED BY BURLEY POOL

The Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association late Saturday afternoon took the first step to enforce its marketing agreement and contract with its members when it served papers in a suit against Garrett Watts, wealthy Fayette county farmer, alleging that he violated his contract.

It is charged that he failed to deliver to it under that contract more than 70,000 pounds of tobacco and that he delivered only 3,550 pounds to the association. Damages in the sum of $3,500 and attorneys' fees of $1,000 additional are asked, both damages and fees being provided for by the contract itself.

Mr. Watts had been to the races at Latonia Saturday and was on his way back home when a deputy sheriff boarded the train at Paris and served the papers in the suit, which was filed Saturday in the Bourbon Circuit Court, the association's attorneys being Franklin, Talbott and Chapman, of Lexington and Paris, Worthington, Browning and Reed, Maysville. Just why the papers were served in Bourbon county or why the suit is filed in this county was not made clear Saturday night.

When the train on which Mr. Watts was coming from Latonia arrived at Paris it was boarded by Assistant Counsel Virgil Chapman, of the Burley Association; Clyde E. Buckley, a member, and Deputy Sheriff James Gibson. When they came to Mr. Watts' seat in the car, Mr. Buckley said pleasantly: "Good evening, Mr. Watts," and the deputy sheriff, who did not know Mr. Watts, promptly served the papers in the case, the petition having been filed previously with Circuit Clerk Webb, of the Bourbon Circuit Court.

The suit, the first of the kind filed since the organization of the burley association, is most important to that organization, for its success or failure will show either it has or has not the power to enforce its contracts by the punishment of those who may violate them.

The suit and its probable consequences was the sole absorbing topic of conversation Sunday and yesterday among the tobacco growers of Bourbon county. According to the petition, the Association seeks to collect the damages referred to as well as the attorneys' fees, under a clause of the contract that provides that if any members shall fail to deliver the tobacco he agrees to in the marketing agreement, he shall pay to the Association as liquidated damages five cents a pound for each pound of tobacco he may fail to deliver, and that he shall also pay a reasonable attorneys' fees in addition.

EDITORIAL FLINGS

An old-timer asserted that language was given to man for purpose of concealing thought. This is obviously an error, since neither Nature nor the gods bestowed upon everyone gifts which only a few can use.

According to the alarmists of the Neolithic period girls may have lost the respect of men, but you can just bet that in this period of knickerbockers and flapper bathing suits they manage to engage the affections of the right fellow.

Here lies the body of Sandy Demush His death was too sad for description.

He was killed by a mob in a terrible rush When he carelessly dropped his prescription.

After a lawn party in the eastern part of Kentucky a man shot his wife, and the explanation was: "They both were drunk, and there's no use denying it." It cannot be denied that in one direction there has been marked social progress during the past decade.

That Lexington man who advertises that he will trade a five-passenger car for a five-passenger house may want to settle down, but in his family he is perhaps the pitiful minority to whom settling down in a home might be jollier than setting up with the vendors of gasoline, cylinder oil, tubes and castings.

A Paris youth was summoned into Court recently as witness in a case in which his parents were principals. The Court duly admonished him as to the nature of an oath, and then asked him: "You go to Sunday school, don't you? And don't they teach you there the difference between right and wrong? Imagine the Court's astonishment when the boy replied: 'Huh! They ain't taught me anything yet.'"

Sugar prices may rise, but they will rise more rapidly and higher upon a rush of buyers to hoard sugar than in a natural market. Do you recall the high sugar propaganda and the 22-cent sugar and customers standing in line? It was a lesson in psychology, not an illustration of shortage.

Topsy Nix, veteran of the ball game as far back as 1862, approached a stranger Sunday afternoon during the Paris-Winchester game and asked him innocently: "Where do they keep the extra bases?" "What do you mean, old fellow?" inquired the stranger. "Why, I just saw a Paris player steal two bases," replied Topsy, as he sidled away, a la Charlie Chaplin.

NEW RACE TRACK TO BE BUILT AT ASHLAND

Plans were completed for the purchase of two hundred and sixty acres of land near Ashland for the erection of a race track and stands, which it is declared, will be one of the largest in Kentucky. It is stated that $400,000 will be spent on the work, to include $275,000 steel and cement grand stands. The track will be one mile and one-eighth in length. Races will be held there this fall, promoters say.

Connell, at their recent meeting, submitted to the Fiscal Court a list of old and new beneficiaries of the Fund, together with the amounts appropriated for each, old and new. Following the report the Court approved it and made the necessary allowances from the Fund to twenty-nine young Paris and Bourbon county girls, who will derive the benefits for the coming year. The list follows:

Declares Tanlac Fully Relieved Stubborn Stomach Trouble and Built Her Up So She's Like a New Person.

"I have recommended Tanlac personally to a number of my friends and am glad for this public statement to be used for what it may be worth to others," said Mrs. M. A. Earle, of Chesapeake, O., while in Huntington one day.
"About two years ago my stomach began to give me trouble. My appetite was poor and what little I did eat seemed to do me more harm than good. Gas bloated me up terribly, it was seldom that I got a good night's sleep and I had a tired, dull, listless feeling all the time.
"But, Tanlac soon got me to feeling like a different person. I now have a fine appetite and can eat anything I please, never have indigestion and just feel splendid. It is a wonderful medicine."
Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

FINDS AXE BELONGING TO "ABE" LINCOLN

A correspondent at Raywick, Ky., writes in a Lebanon paper of a remarkable find. Forty-two years ago he unearthed an axe on the Lincoln farm in Hardin county. With scarcely a reason he can remember, he carried the rusty blade, which dropped from a rotten handle, to his home. In several moves the axe moved with the plunder as scrap iron for the junkman when he might call. On an idle day, he picked it up and in curiosity ground it to see if the ancient piece of steel would hold an edge. Under dirt and rust he found the initials A. L. Testing the edge, his right forefinger was cut to the bone. He proclaims Abe Lincoln's axe the finest piece of steel he has seen in a long life, and the junk he had sheltered so many years has suddenly become a treasure.

TEACHERS, TAKE THE LOCAL PAPER

If you mean money to "keep school" the local paper is not essential. If, on the other hand, you are a real, honest-to-goodness teacher (and therefore a leader) the local paper is one of the tools that you must have.

You should supply the pupils from fresh living water and not from a stagnant pool. Hence you will need the local paper with which to illustrate civics, geography, current events, etc.

Then, too, you must remember that nine times out of ten the one person who will take the time to co-operate with you is the editor of the local paper. He is not mercenary, or he would have chosen another calling. He, like you, is interested in everything for the good of the people. He may make mistakes, and doubtless will, but his heart is in the right place. He is anxious to do everything possible for you and your school, but he is a very busy man, often overworked and underpaid.

When you arrive in town you should let everything go until you have looked up the editor and given him your subscription. There's no excuse to neglect this moral support that you owe to your best friend. You may be broke. Tell the editor. You will get his sympathy. No one has been there more often than he, and nothing will please him more than to send the paper until you get a check.

Should you have a hard community get the patrons to subscribe for the local paper. You may rest assured that a small per cent of such communities take their paper.

Thus you will show your leadership by co-operating with the most influential factor of your community.—Kentucky School News.

WAGE REDUCTIONS ARE CALLED WRONG

Assertion that "a wage reduction policy is wrong in every way and unnecessary" was made by Will I. Ohmer, of Chicago, chairman of the Board of the Associated Motor Industries, an automobile merger embracing seven cars and trucks and including the Kentucky Wagon Works of Louisville. Outlining his wage policy, Mr. Ohmer said:

"Everybody should join now in harmonious work for production and prosperity for all. Talk of wage reduction is entirely out of harmony. Where is prosperity if there is wage reduction? We are building up now and not tearing down."

"We believe that wage workers should have the opportunity to earn more wages instead of less. Talk of cutting down wages of workmen and women is the most harmful talk that could be indulged in now."

"What this country and the world wants is harmony, mutual good will, confidence and greater production. Wage reduction can only produce discontent, pessimism and limited production."

"The essential argument is that wage reduction is not necessary, but, on the contrary, is the very thing that would defeat what is necessary, namely efficient production."

"Reduction of costs should not be brought about by reduction of wages. What the times call for is superior methods of manufacture, not wage cutting."

"We are going to have prosperity and, in fact, it is here now. So don't let us spoil everything by wage reduction talk. We don't want less wages for the workers—we want more wages and we want to make the opening greater for them to earn more."

POPULAR EDITOR HEADS STATE "PRESS GANG"

Gemmill B. Senff, editor of the Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat, was elected president of the Kentucky Press Association at its concluding session at Crab Orchard, succeeding W. L. Dawson, editor of the Oldham Era, at La Grange.

Mr. Senff was vice-president of the K. P. A. last year and chairman of its Legislative Committee. To his work in the latter capacity is attributed much of the success of newspapers of the State in getting through the General Assembly the law classifying newspaper plants as manufacturing and exempting them from all taxation except for State purposes. Mr. Senff is one of the most popular editors in the State.

The only invitation yet received by the press association for next year's meeting is one from the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce. This informed the Executive Committee of the association that the New Capitol Hotel would be completed by this time and would be ready to take care of the delegates.

POULTRY, BUTTER AND EGGS MARKETS

Movement of live poultry has been heavier than usual for this time of the year and as the demand for dressed poultry has fallen off to some extent, prices have worked to a lower level. It is the opinion of some of the trade that prices for poultry during the past few years have been higher relatively than for other kinds of meat, and for that reason, some are predicting lower values for all kinds of poultry for the entire season.

The quality of eggs being shipped at the present time is somewhat better than a week or two ago, on account of more favorable weather. The supply arriving at consuming markets is still greater than the demand, and surplus stocks are going to storage. Indications point to an extremely large surplus in storage July 1, over the same period last year, and the trade generally looks for reasonable values to continue throughout the remainder of the year.

Butter production is showing further decrease on account of pasturage conditions, but as there were heavy rains throughout a large portion of the producing territory last week, the decrease from now on should be more gradual. The demand continues good for butter for consuming purposes and for storage. The export demand which existed a few weeks ago, has, for the present been taken care of.

JURY DISAGREES IN THE COHEN CASE

Charles Cohen, Lexington, merchant, on trial for shooting and wounding Jos. W. Porter last November, again was liberated on $5,000 bond, when the jury trying the case was dismissed by Circuit Judge R. C. Stoll after reporting that there was no hope of reaching an agreement.

It was reported that the jury stood ten for conviction and two for acquittal in the final balloting. Two members who voted for an acquittal on the first ballot went over for conviction before the balloting ended, it was said.

At Cohen's first trial last April the jury reported that it was hopelessly deadlocked and was discharged after many hours of deliberation. The final ballot stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal.

HOME OF DODGE BROS. CARS

RAID PRODUCES MOONSHINE

Receiving information of the suspected presence of moonshine whiskey in the home of James Shack, in the colored suburb of Claysville, Patrolman George W. Judy enlisted the aid of the Sheriff's office and with Sheriff M. Peale Collier, made a descent upon the suspected home. Shack was not "at home" when the officials came to call, but a search of the premises revealed the presence of nine and one-half gallons of moonshine whiskey. Shack is at large, and the whiskey reposes in the strong ward in the Sheriff's office.

Recent raids and the sudden departure of well-known "bootleggers" has tended to put a severe crimp in the illegal traffic in moonshine, and, it is alleged the stuff is becoming very scarce.

CITY COUNCIL AWARDS PAVING CONTRACT

At a recent meeting of the City Council the contract for resurfacing Main street from Fourteenth to Twentieth, was awarded to Des Cognets & Co., of Lexington, for a sum approximating $56,000. This is exclusive of that portion of the street between the interurban tracks for which a separate contract will be let. A wrangle in the Council ensuing over the letting of the contract, Councilmen Santen, Doyle and Mitchell forsook the Councilmanic abode, leaving the matter in the hands of the remaining Councilmen, who made the award in favor of the Lexington firm.

The new street will be thirty-eight feet wide, with concrete curb and gutter, with a grass plot on each side of the pavement. The cost of the improvement will be shared jointly by the city and the property owners. All property owners will be required to make necessary sewer, water and gas connections before the resurfacing work is begun.

PARIS CHAUTAUQUA WILL OPEN TO-MORROW

The official program has been printed in full in the Paris papers, and given to the public through other means, and suffice it to say that it is one that will interest, amuse and instruct everyone who attends.

The program this year will be in charge of J. T. Hughes, who has had many years experience in the Chautauqua field.

BURLEY TOBACCO GROWERS' PAPER ISSUED

The Burley Tobacco Growers' July issue is out, with 16 pages of tobacco news and advertising. J. Sherman Porter, editor and manager of the growers' publication, said that it had adopted the standard farm paper size for the future, in order to be able to carry the standard size plates for national advertising.

President Stone has received letters from the publishers of most of the country newspapers in which the editors state that the principal reason they gave support to the organization of the burley association was their belief that it was for the general good of all and that while they knew the formation of the association would lose them some business in local advertising, they felt that they would be more than compensated by the general prosperity they believed bound to result from co-operative marketing.

Birds Guard Our Trees.
We can spray orchards and shade trees with poisonous insecticides, but we would stand aghast at the impossible task of spraying all the trees in all the woods, says the American Forestry Magazine. We must perforce depend on the natural enemies of insects to protect our forests. Fortunately, birds and other foes of insects, wherever their numbers are sufficient, act as effective forest guardians.

ANCIENT SHOP SOLD

Nothing but Drugs Ever Sold in This London Pharmacy.

Worshipful Company of Apothecaries Disposes of Its Historic Shop in City of London—Established in Seventeenth Century.

London.—The Worshipful Company of Apothecaries has sold its ancient shop to a London firm of druggists.

It has been carried on by this city company since early in the Seventeenth century and was, as it were, the classic druggist's shop, with its discreet window of frosted glass—the apothecaries did not display their wares—the shop forms, the plain facade behind which is hidden a dim old courtyard and then the hall and other rooms of the society. Almost next door, in Water Lane, was the Blackfriars theater, where Shakespeare and Burbage played.

The society's prescriptions, formulas and special preparations—many of them centuries old—are taken over by the new owners. The little factory where the society makes drugs wholesale, chiefly on government orders, has not changed hands yet.

The shop is a spacious place, lined with mellow-looking old bottles, gleaming warmly with gilt and color. You look in vain for patent medicines or any paraphernalia of the modern chemist. It is all drugs and nothing but drugs, and people who come in with prescriptions are usually known and addressed by their names. The shop is leisurely and quiet, as befits its pedigree. Many customers are sorry that the company should be giving up its useful service of selling sound drugs in these days when the city companies rarely still perform their original functions.

In the old days no apothecary could open a shop in the city without a license from the Apothecaries' Hall, nor could he sell drugs that had not been duly tested at the hall.

The old charter gives the company the right to burn unwholesome drugs in front of the offender's door. The company is one of three bodies entitled to grant a medical degree. In the early Eighteenth century there was a fierce quarrel between the physicians and the apothecaries over this, and Doctor Garth in his dispensary spoke rudely of the Apothecaries' Hall as the place "where tyros take the freedom out to kill."

GETS BRIDE THROUGH APPLE

Florida Man Weds Daughter of Orchardist Who Wrote Her Name on Wrapper.

Wenatchee, Wash.—A girl's name on the wrapper of a northwest apple, read by the owner of an orange grove in Florida, resulted in the marriage here of Amos Hemmings, Inverness, Fla., and Beth Tilley, daughter of George Tilley, orchardist.

Last fall, while packing apples on her father's ranch, Beth wrote her name and address on several wrappers and added: "Who reads this, please write."

Hemmings bought the box of apples during Christmas week in Florida. He read, came and conquered.

Canada's Mounted Police Facing Hard Task Counting Noses in Far North.

Edmonton, Alberta.—There probably are not more than 3,000 Eskimos scattered across the Arctic and sub-Arctic regions of Canada, but they have to be counted to comply with the law. The Royal Canadian mounted police are still numbering these scattered tribes. The first batch of mail received here from the Far North shows that last August there were 1,364 from Coronation gulf to the Alaskan boundary.

MEXICO PICKING UP

Remarkable Progress Being Made in Overcoming Illiteracy.

Night Schools in Capital Have Taught Many Persons to Read and Write—Laboring Class Is Deeply Interested.

Mexico City.—Remarkable progress is being made in overcoming illiteracy in the capital, according to information obtained from the department of public education of the federal government.

During the first three months of the present year approximately 15,000 persons of the lower class were taught to read and write. This educational work is being carried on largely by means of night schools, which are of themselves something of a novelty in Mexico.

It is stated that interest on the part of the laboring class in this educational work is unbounded. They crowd the schools to full capacity and there are hundreds who cannot as yet be taken care of on account of the lack of teachers and other facilities. Men and women of middle age vie with sandal-footed youths to obtain enough instruction to enable them to read and write. In one of the larger schools there is an average attendance of 800 persons.

The teaching of the fundamentals, which is being done in the schools, is supplemented by a series of educational lectures that are given in moving picture theaters on Sundays. So successful has been this plan of teaching the lowly natives the rudiments of reading and writing in this city that the department of public education plans to extend the work to all of the larger cities and many of the smaller communities of the country.

President Alvaro Obregon has shown a keen interest in this new phase of education and has pledged to provide the necessary financial means for carrying it forward.

STUNG BY BEE, DIES IN HOUR

Apoplexy Following Shock Kills New Jersey Farmer Afflicted With Weak Heart.

Caldwell, N. J.—Stung on the right temple by a honey bee Harry Collier, a farmer living four miles from here, died half an hour later. After returning from town, where several of his friends remarked that he seemed in perfect health, Mr. Collier began chopping wood. A few minutes later he hurried to the house, telling his wife that he had been stung by a bee.

Mrs. Collier discovered the stinger and extracted it. As her husband's pain seemed to increase she set out for the nearest house to telephone for a physician while his sister, Miss Matilda Collier, applied first aid.

The sick man's neck began to swell. He soon lapsed into unconsciousness and died before a physician arrived. Coroner Thomas J. Lewis said death was due to a stroke of apoplexy caused by the shock of the insect's sting and a weak heart.

BURY WOMAN WITH 2 PILLOWS

New York Spinster Provided $1 Each for Relatives; Gives Money to Cripples.

New York.—The will of Miss Mary E. Connors, sixty-four, directing her friend and executor, Mrs. Katherine Rees, to bury her in a single grave with an extra pillow under her head and to see that no carriages followed the hearse, was filed for probate in the surrogate's court.

In the event of any relatives being discovered she directed that $1 be given each "because during life they had no affection for me." No relatives have been heard of by Mrs. Rees, and under the will the residue of Miss Connors' estate after a few bequests to friends, will go to the Hospital for Ruptured and Cripples.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE

Paris People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease

The symptoms of kidney trouble are many. Disordered kidneys often excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back may ache, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighted down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better endorsed kidney remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Paris proof of their merit.

Joe Kiely, proprietor shoe repair shop, 617 Ferguson street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me a world of good and I take pleasure in recommending them to anyone suffering with kidney trouble. I was a sufferer from kidney complaint and my back ached most of the time. My kidneys were weak and the secretions were highly colored and contained sediment. I lost my sleep at night as there was no let up to the pain in my back. I got four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills at Ardery's Drug Store and used them. They rid me of the trouble entirely."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kiely had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

A MOUNTAIN HERO'S GRAVE MARKED

He has written his name where all can read, and at no time can human hands efface." Thus reads a portion of an inscription which appears on a marker which will be erected at the grave of Henry Hurst (1762-1844), on a mountain top near the waters of Wolf creek, at the corner of Breathitt, Morgan and Wolf counties. Henry Hurst was a revolutionary soldier (the great grandfather of Sam K. Kash, of Corbin), and had some remarkable experiences in that war. He was captured by the enemy on four different occasions, making his escape after slaying his guard or guards, being a captive only a short time. He fired and blew up one of Cornwallis' magazines near Trenton and did other daring deeds to harass the enemy. After the close of the war young Hurst came to Kentucky and settled in the eastern part of the State, and lived until 1844. His wishes to be buried on the mountain top were carried out. The erection of the marker monument is at the instance of his great grandson, Sam K. Kash, who is at present holding a government position in Washington, and who was present at the exercises at the grave on July 4, on which occasion he delivered an appropriate oration at the resting place of his ancestor who was laid to rest there seventy-eight years ago.

Buttercup Seeds as Food.

The seeds of the buttercup are so small that we would scarcely think of them as a source of food for human beings; yet it is said that the Indians formerly gathered them for that purpose. At first thought, collecting them in sufficient quantity would seem like an almost endless task. But after one has seen them growing as thickly as grain—as in the cases above referred to, for instance—the situation takes on a new light.—Los Angeles Times.

Less Costly Dealing.

"The portrait painter charged me $1,000 to do me in oil," said the man who had just cleaned up in the stock market. "You get off cheap," replied the man who had been on the losing side. "In the future I think I'll have my dealings with a painter instead of a broker."

STUDY CHINESE IN NEW YORK

Group of Philosophers Live in Bamboo Forest and Teach Lore of Far East.

SCHOOL IN A TEA GARDEN

But a Foreign Language May Also Be Learned by Darning Head Philosopher Finds—Comes From Famous Family.

New York.—Not many people know that among the many interesting things which develop in New York city is a group of Chinese philosophers who dwell in a bamboo forest. Knowing that the forest is on Macdougall street helps, for many interesting things come out of Macdougall street.

The head of the philosophic group is Dr. Liu Tien Tao, who received degrees both in China and at Columbia, and who, once a week, may be found imparting knowledge of Chinese language, philosophy and poetry to a group of students. These include artists, writers and Chinese students. The Chinese in themselves are interesting, for they come from different parts of the world, where they have lived since leaving their native land. One speaks French and does not understand English; another speaks Russian.

Teach Chinese.

Chinese is taught by Doctor Liu in a semi-popular way, much as the European languages are taught. It is comparatively simple to obtain a slight working knowledge of the language, the students find. The delight of writing mysterious characters such as those which grow on tea chests is one of which the pupils never tire. In time they expect to a certain extent to read Chinese poetry and philosophy. In the meantime they imbibe it from Doctor Liu, who later is to arrange special courses in Chinese poetry and philosophy, with the aid of lecturers from Columbia.

Doctor Liu believes that his work is valuable in promoting mutual understanding between Chinese and Americans. He thinks each country can obtain of the other something of value which it needs—that China can get practical business methods from America and America can feel the quieting influence of Chinese philosophy.

In the meantime, the American students of Chinese are absorbing knowledge literally in a bamboo forest. It is something like Shakespeare's "tongues in trees, books in running brooks." At the Bamboo Forest the students read—if they can make it out—Chinese poetry written on lacquered tables, some of it by great national poets and other verses contributed by Doctor Liu himself. Big decorative Chinese characters signifying "happiness" or "wisdom" cover the walls or the bamboo poles which form the forest.

In Bamboo Forest.

This forest is a Chinese tea garden which, with American business vision, Doctor Liu saw would have to pay overhead charges while he was carrying on his chosen work and gathering around him as applicants for Chinese wisdom little coteries of interested philosophers and friends. The tables covered with Chinese characters were all decorated by the head philosopher himself.

The Bamboo Forest is indoors in a basement of the little old Macdougall street house in winter, but in fair weather extends to a more real bamboo forest in the open at the rear.

Doctor Liu is a philosophic philosopher. He takes the American world as he finds it and adopts its customs and habits. He attended the recent ball of the Independent Artists at the Waldorf dressed as a prince of the old Tang period. But he danced American dances with the rest of the American world, an accomplishment he learned while at Columbia.

The head philosopher of the Bamboo Forest comes from a family of both students and warriors. His father was president of a Chinese college, and an uncle, the famous Gen. Hwang Hsing, led the republican forces in the revolution in China in 1912.

Young Hog's Great Weight.

Green Bay, Wis.—J. Gabriel Town of Brazeau, exhibited at the Farmers' Institute in Klondike a strip of flesh from a twenty-month-old hog raised on his farm that tipped the scales when alive at 1,017 pounds and when dressed at 717 pounds. The strip was cut from the back of the porker and was eight inches thick without the bone. The hog was a cross between a Poland China and a Chester White. The hog was fed only corn the last two months it was alive.

Lightning Kills Trout in New York State Pond

Washington.—An interesting letter was received by the fisheries bureau the other day from B. H. Norton of Syracuse, whose ponds were stocked with trout fry by the bureau a while ago. It reads:

"We have been very successful in raising the trout allotted to us. The only loss we have had was one trout that was struck by lightning."

TEACHERS AT THE COLLEGE

The following interesting facts about the Kentucky teachers enrolled at George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tennessee, have recently been prepared for THE BOURBON NEWS:

Of the one hundred and six teachers in attendance from the State of Kentucky, fifty-eight are college graduates. Representing Berea College is one graduate; Bethel College, Mopkinsville, Ky., one; Bowling Green State Normal School, twenty-one; Carson-Newman College, Tennessee, one; Chicago, Ill., Kindergarten School, one; Danville, Ky., College for Women, one; Fresno Cal., Normal School, one; Georgetown University, three; Kentucky State University, one; Lanier University, Ga., one; Livingston, Ala., State Normal School, two; Logan College, three; Louisville Kindergarten Training School, one; The Middle Tennessee State Normal School, one; Millersburg, Ky., College, one; George Peabody College for Teachers, two; Richmond, Ky., State Normal School, five; Vanderbilt University, two; Wesleyan College, one; Western College, Ohio, two.

The majority of the students enrolled from the State of Kentucky are experienced teachers. During the school year twenty-eight of these men and women are administrators of public education; five are college instructors; thirty-four are teachers of high school subjects, and seventeen are teachers of primary and grammar grades. Seven did not mention the type of work they are doing; and fifteen failed to indicate that they are teaching.

TWENTY-SIX COUNTIES LACKING TAX RETURNS

Twenty-six of the 120 counties in Kentucky, either have not sent in their tax returns for the year, or have failed to meet increases ordered by the State Tax Commission, it was announced at the office of the commission, in Frankfort. Recapitulations from 11 others have not been approved, pending the outcome of appeals from the assessments made by the tax supervisors.

It is regarded here as probable that some of the counties which have not yet made their returns to the Commission were awaiting the recent decision of the Court of Appeals in which it was held that the counties must meet increases ordered by the Commission. All of the counties which "revolted" against the commission and backed the Fayette county suit, are among those still out.

The counties from which returns have not yet been received are: Adair, Anderson, Ballard, Bath, Bourbon, Boyle, Carlisle, Clark, Crittenden, Fayette, Graves, Hardin, Knott, Larue, Madison, Marion, Marshall, McCracken, Mercer, Montgomery, Owen, Pike, Powell, Scott, Union and Webster.

The editorial was in regard to the trial of the Clayhole election cases. The cases were transferred from Breathitt county to the Boyd county Circuit Court and Judge Halbert presided over the trial of the election cases.

DEATHS

Life Is But A Brief Span, A Debt That All Must Pay

GIBSON

—A message was received here by relatives yesterday announcing the death in Venita, Oklahoma, of Wm. L. Gibson, aged about seventy-two, a former resident of Bourbon county. The message gave no further particulars.

Mr. Gibson during his residence in Bourbon, was engaged in farming near Little Rock. He moved West many years ago, and located near Venita, where he had since resided. Mr. Gibson is survived by his widow and several children, and by the following brothers and sisters, residing in this county: Deputy Sheriff Jas. Gibson, Jos. P. Gibson, Mrs. D. L. Robbins and Mrs. Thos. Taul.

GALLOWAY

—Paris relatives and friends were surprised to learn of the marriage of Capt. F. Emerson Galloway, formerly of Paris, which took place several days ago in Memphis, Tenn., his bride being Miss Ruth Suggs, of Huntsville, Alabama. The wedding was solemnized in the apartments of the bride's parents, in the Hotel Gayoso, in Memphis, Rev. A. U. Boone, pastor of the First Baptist church of Memphis, officiating. Following the ceremony Capt. and Mrs. Galloway, with Mr. and Mrs. Suggs, left for a short visit to Huntsville and will later go to Ft. Still, Okla., where the groom is stationed in the aviation branch of the U. S. Army.

While visiting her sister at Columbus, Georgia, the bride and her future husband had their first meeting, Capt. Galloway then being stationed in infantry service at Camp Benning. It was a case of love at first sight, and the courtship progressed until Miss Suggs, who was one of the society buds of Huntsville, became Mrs. Galloway.

Capt. Galloway is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Galloway, and a brother of Fennell Galloway, of the Peoples-Deposit Bank, of Paris. He served through the war in the infantry, and for a long time was stationed in the service at Vladivostok, Siberia. After the war he entered the air service, and is said to be one of the most popular officers in that branch of the army.

MATRIMONIAL

A Record of Dan Cupid's Doings As The Days Go By

RUMSEY—JESSEE

—Miss May Rumsey and Mr. Wm. Wright Jessee, both giving Lexington as their place of residence, secured a marriage license from the office of County Clerk Peafce Paton, Saturday. They were married shortly after by County Judge Geo. Batterton, in his private office in the court house. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rumsey, and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jessee, all of Fayette county. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Jessee returned on the interurban to Lexington where they will reside in the future.

BOURBON FARM CONDITIONS

As a result of the rains of the past week crops are growing right along, and the prospects for corn and tobacco are especially good. Practically all sections of the county have been visited by the rains. A few more days will see all the wheat threshed and ready for the buyers. The crop this season is reported as not up to the standard of former years, and according to the opinion of well-posted farmers the yield will not average much more than ten bushels to the acre.

Most of the corn will probably be "laid by" in the next few days, and a great deal of the crop has already been given its last plowing. The corn is in excellent condition and making substantial progress. The drought has had some effect on the yield, however.

The tobacco crop, which, like the corn and wheat, is earlier than for several years, is growing rapidly, and some of the earliest setting has begun to "button out." The late setting has improved since the rains, but the stand is not very good on account of the drouth.

Oats are short of straw and light on heads on account of the dry weather. Most of this crop has been harvested. Some early potatoes were benefitted by the rains, but in general the moisture came too late. The crop is light in the county.
